

Introducing the Theatrical Attractions for Next Week and the Holidays

Scene from "Nothing But the Truth," in Which William Collier Is Starring at the Adelphi

David Warfield in His "Music Master" Will Be the Holiday Attraction at the Forrest.

Louisita Valentine in "The Boomerang," Continuing an Extended Run at the Garrick.

Dorothy Newell Comes to the Metropolitan Christmas Week in "Experience."

Marie Flynn, Now at the Chestnut Street Opera House in "You're in Love."

Naomi Glass Will Entertain Patrons of Keith's Next Week

Henry Clive in "The Rainbow Girl," Now at the Forrest.

The Casino Next Week Will Present Nettle Nelson With "The Bostonians."

Raymond Hitchcock and Irene Bordoni Will Be Holiday Attractions at the Lyric in "Hitchey-Koo."

Fanny Albertman Coming Next Week to the Little Theatre as Moo-Moo in "The Chinese Lantern"

Louise Pearson Will Appear Next Week in Burlesque at the Trocadero

Alexandra Carlisle and Eugene O'Brien as They Will Appear Over the Holidays in "The Country Cousin," at the Broad.